

TRUCK HERO

SUPPLIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This agreement is between a Truck Hero, Inc. ("THI") Company (as identified in the applicable purchase orders) herein referred to as the "Buyer" and the party to the purchase orders issued by Buyer (the "Purchase Order(s)" and having an address as specified on the Purchase Orders, hereinafter referred to as "Seller." Both Buyer and Seller (the "Parties") agree to these terms and conditions for all Purchase Orders given by Buyer to Seller at any time.

1. ACCEPTANCE:

Each Purchase Order and Purchase Order revision issued by Buyer is an offer (the "Offer") to Seller for the purchase of goods and/or services, that includes and is governed by these General Terms and Conditions, the Truck Hero, Inc. Supplier Code of Conduct, the terms contained in any addendum or supplement issued by Buyer and accepted by Seller (whether such acceptance is in accordance with the following or otherwise), any supplier manual provided or made available by Buyer to Seller, and any other documents incorporated by reference in this Order or in these General Terms and Conditions (collectively, the "Terms," Purchase Order and Terms together, the "Contract"). Seller has read and understands these Terms and agrees that Seller's written acceptance or commencement of any part of the work or services under any Purchase Order shall constitute Seller's acceptance of Buyer's Offer and these Terms. All terms and conditions proposed by Seller that are different from or in addition to these Terms, including, but not limited to, terms and conditions contained in any quotation or acceptance by Seller, are expressly objected to and rejected by Buyer. Any such proposal or attempted variance by Seller shall not operate as a rejection of this Offer if Seller accepts Buyer's Offer by any means provided for under these Terms or applicable law, the Offer shall be deemed accepted by Seller without any additional or different terms or variations whatsoever. Buyer's issuance of a Purchase Order does not constitute an acceptance of any prior offer or proposal by Seller, and any reference in the Purchase Order or the Terms to any such prior offer or proposal (including any quotation issued by Seller whether or not such quotation purports to contain Seller's terms of sale, if any) is solely to incorporate the description or specifications of the goods and/or services contained in such offer or proposal, but only to the extent that such description or specifications are not directly in conflict with Buyer's description and specifications contained in the Contract.

2. QUANTITY AND DURATION:

The quantity applicable to each Purchase Order, and the duration applicable to each Purchase Order, shall be as specified on the face of the Purchase Order. The quantity specified may be for up to one hundred percent (100%) of Buyer's requirements for the goods. Seller further acknowledges and agrees that Seller is obligated to provide goods to Buyer in the quantity specified in any release issued by Buyer. To the extent that Buyer issues separate releases for specific quantities under a Purchase Order, each release will specify a firm quantity of goods and/or a firm quantity of raw materials/components that Buyer will be responsible for in the event of termination. Releases may include projections or estimates for future quantities, but releases are only binding upon Buyer for, and Buyer will have no obligation or liability beyond, the firm quantity specified in the release. Seller acknowledges and agrees to accept the risk associated with the lead times of the various components if they are beyond the firm release quantities provided by Buyer.

3. SHIPPING AND BILLING:

Seller agrees: (a) to properly pack, mark and ship goods in accordance with the requirements of Buyer, the involved carriers, and, if applicable, the country of destination; (b) to route shipments in accordance with Buyer's instructions; (c) to make no charge for handling, packaging, storage or transportation of goods, unless otherwise stated as an item on the Purchase Orders; (d) to provide with each shipment packing slips with Buyer's contract and/or release number and date of shipment marked thereon; (e) to properly mark each package with a label/tag according to Buyer's instructions; (f) to promptly forward the original bill of lading or other shipping receipt for each shipment in accordance with Buyer's instructions. Seller will include on bills of lading or other shipping receipts the correct tariff classification code as identified under the Harmonized Tariff System of the United State ("HTSUS") and the correct Export Classification Control Number ("ECCN"), where applicable, and identify all of the goods shipped in accordance with Buyer's instructions and the carrier's requirements. The marks on each package and identification of the goods on packing slips, bills of lading and invoices (when required) shall be sufficient to enable Buyer and any U.S. or foreign customs officials to easily identify the goods purchased. The terms of payment specified by Buyer on the Purchase Orders shall control and may not be contradicted by any differing payment terms set forth on any invoices rendered by Seller to Buyer. Unless otherwise specified by Buyer in writing, the terms of sale for all such shipments shall be Delivery

Duty Paid ("DDP") as defined under INCOTERMS 2010. Buyer may withhold payment pending receipt of evidence, in such form and detail as Buyer may direct, of the absence of any liens, encumbrances and claims on the goods or services provided by Seller to Buyer.

4. DELIVERY SCHEDULES:

Time is of the essence, and deliveries shall be made both in quantities and at times specified in Buyer's schedules. Buyer shall not be required to make payment for goods delivered to Buyer that are in excess of quantities specified in Buyer's delivery schedules. Buyer may change the rate of scheduled shipments or direct temporary suspension of scheduled shipments, neither of which shall entitle Seller to a modification of the price for goods or services covered by the Purchase Orders. Where quantities and/or delivery schedules are not specified, Seller shall deliver goods in such quantities and times as Buyer may direct in subsequent releases. At Buyer's option (but not as Buyer's exclusive remedy): (a) a charge of up to $5000 may be levied against Seller for each part number that does not meet the prescribed delivery date on the Purchase Orders; and (b) subject to the provisions of these Terms, a charge of $25,000 per day may be levied against Seller if any late delivery results in a line down situation at Buyer's business.

5. PREMIUM SHIPMENTS:

If Seller's acts or omissions result in Seller's failure to meet Buyer's delivery requirements and Buyer requires a more expeditious method of transportation for the goods than the transportation method originally specified by Buyer, Seller shall ship the goods as expeditiously as possible using the more expeditious method directed by Buyer, all at Seller's sole expense. In the event that Seller refuses to use a more expeditious method as directed by Buyer, Buyer may, at its option, arrange for such shipping methods as Buyer deems necessary to meet the delivery requirements and recover all related expenses.

6. CHANGES:

Buyer reserves the right, at any time, to direct changes, or cause Seller to make changes, to drawings and specifications of the goods or to otherwise change the scope of the work covered by any Purchase Order, including work with respect to such matters as inspection, testing or quality control, and Seller agrees to promptly make such changes. Any difference in price or time for performance resulting from such changes shall be equitably adjusted by Buyer after receipt of documentation in such form and detail as Buyer may direct. Failure of the Parties to agree on the amount of, or need for, an equitable adjustment shall not constitute grounds for Seller to suspend or terminate performance of its obligations under the Contract. Seller may not make any change in design, processing, packing, shipping, or place of delivery without Buyer's written approval. Any changes to any Purchase Order or these Terms shall be made only in accordance with the applicable requirements set forth in these Terms.

7. SELLER QUALITY AND DEVELOPMENT; INSPECTION:

Seller agrees to participate in Buyer's supplier quality and development program(s) and to comply with all quality requirements and procedures specified by Buyer, as revised from time to time. In addition, Buyer shall have the right to enter Seller's facility at reasonable times to inspect all relevant documents, records, materials, equipment, tooling and goods in the possession or under the control of Seller relating to any of Seller's obligations under this Purchase Order or any other Purchase Order. Buyer's inspection of the goods, whether during manufacture, prior to delivery or within a reasonable time after delivery, shall not constitute acceptance of any work-in-process or finished goods, nor shall it constitute Buyer's approval of Buyer's manufacturing practices or procedures.

8. NONCONFORMING GOODS:

Seller acknowledges that Buyer will not perform incoming inspections of the goods, and waives any rights to require Buyer to conduct such inspections. To the extent Buyer rejects goods as nonconforming, the quantities under any Purchase Orders will automatically be reduced, unless Buyer otherwise notifies Seller. Seller will not replace quantities so reduced until directed to by Buyer under a new purchase order or schedule from Buyer. Nonconforming goods will be held by Buyer in accordance with Seller's instructions at Seller's risk. Seller's failure to provide written instructions within 10 days, or such shorter period as may be commercially reasonable under the circumstances, after notice of nonconformity shall entitle Buyer, at Buyer's option, to charge Seller for storage and handling or to dispose of the goods (at Seller's expense) without liability to Buyer. Payment for nonconforming goods shall not constitute an acceptance of them, nor shall it limit or impair Buyer's right to seek any legal or equitable remedy related to the nonconforming goods, or relieve Seller from responsibility for latent or obvious defects.

9. FORCE MAJEURE:

Any delay or failure of either party to perform its obligations shall be excused if Seller is unable to produce, sell or deliver, or Buyer is unable to accept delivery, buy or use, the goods or services covered by a Purchase Order, as the result of an event or occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the party and without its fault or negligence, including, but not limited to, acts of God, actions by any governmental authority (whether valid or invalid and including, without limitation, the imposition of boycotts, economic sanctions, embargos, export control laws, and other restrictive trade measures), fires, floods, windstorms, explosions, riots, natural disasters, wars, sabotage, or court injunction or order; provided that written notice of such delay (including the anticipated duration of the delay) shall be given by the affected party to the other party as soon as possible after the event or occurrence (but in no event more than 10 days thereafter). During the period of such delay or failure to perform by Seller, Buyer, at its option, may purchase goods and services from other sources and reduce its schedules to Seller by such quantities, without liability to Seller, or have Seller provide the goods and services from other sources in quantities and at times requested by Buyer (unless prohibited by economic sanctions, export control laws, or other applicable laws), and at the price set forth in the existing Purchase Orders. In addition, Seller at its expense shall take such actions as are necessary to ensure the supply of goods and services to Buyer for a period of at least 30 days during any anticipated labor disruption or resulting from the expiration of Seller's labor contract(s). If requested by Buyer, Seller shall, within 5 days, provide adequate assurances that the delay shall not exceed 30 days. If the delay lasts more than 30 days or Seller does not provide adequate assurance that the delay will cease within 30 days, Buyer may immediately terminate all obligations to Seller, including under any Purchase Orders, without liability.

10. WARRANTY:

- a. In addition to Seller's customer warranties, any express warranties set forth in the Contract, any statutory warranties or any warranties implied by law, Seller expressly warrants, represents guarantees and acknowledges that the goods covered by any Purchase Order and/or otherwise delivered to Buyer: (i) shall strictly conform with all specifications, drawings, statements on containers or labels, descriptions and samples furnished to or by Buyer, and all industry standards, laws and regulations in force in countries where such goods are to be sold; (ii) shall be free from defects in design, material and workmanship and shall be new and of the highest quality; (iii) shall be free and clear of all liens, claims or other encumbrances, and that Seller is conveying good title to Buyer; (iv) shall be merchantable, of good material and workmanship, free from defects, and safe, (v) have been selected, designed, manufactured and assembled by Seller based upon, and will be fit and sufficient for, the particular purposes intended by Buyer, which purposes Seller acknowledges are known to it; (vi) shall be adequately contained, packaged, marked and labeled; (vii) in the case of services, all services performed on behalf of Buyer shall be performed in a competent, workmanlike manner; and (viii) the goods shall be manufactured in accordance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, industry standards or other standards, labeling, transporting, licensing approval or certification requirements in the United States or any other country where the goods will be sold or used.
- b. The warranty period shall be the longer of: (a) any warranty specified in any Purchase Orders; (b) any warranty offered by Seller in writing or verbally, related to the goods specified in the Purchase Orders; (c) any warranty period specified by law; (d) the warranty period given by Seller to its other customers for goods of like nature to those set forth on the Purchase Orders or otherwise delivered to Buyer; (e) a period of three years from date of sale by Buyer, to its end customer, of such goods supplied by Seller; or the applicable warranty period offered to retail purchasers for the goods, or the end product into which the goods are incorporated.
- c. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller agrees to waive the expiration of the warranty period in the event there are failures or defects discovered after the warranty period of a significant nature or in a significant portion of the goods, or a defect is discovered which, in Buyer's reasonable opinion, constitutes a threat of damage to property or to the health and safety of any person.
- d. In the event that Buyer, or its end customer, voluntarily or pursuant to a government mandate, makes an offer to owners of vehicles (or other finished products) on which the goods, or any parts, components or systems incorporating the goods, are installed to provide remedial action to address a defect or condition that relates to motor vehicle safety or reliability or the failure of the vehicle to comply with any applicable law, safety standard or guideline, whether in connection with a recall campaign or other customer satisfaction or corrective service action (a "Remedial Action"), the warranty period shall continue for such time period as may be dictated by Buyer's end customer or the federal, state, local or foreign government where the goods are used or provided and Seller shall fully comply with the requirements of the Contract. Notwithstanding the expiration of the warranty period, Seller shall nonetheless be liable for cost and damages associated with any Remedial Action to the extent that such Remedial Action is based upon a reasonable determination (including by use of statistical analysis or other sampling methodology) that the goods fail to conform to the warranties set forth in the Contract. Where applicable, Seller shall pay all reasonable expenses associated with determining whether a Remedial Action involving the goods is necessary. Buyer and Seller agree that any Remedial Action involving the goods shall be treated separately and distinctly from similar Remedial Actions of other goods of Seller; provided that such separate and distinct treatment is lawful and Seller shall in no event fail to provide at least the same protection to Buyer on such goods as Seller provides to its other customers in connection with such similar Remedial Actions.

- e. If Seller breaches any of the foregoing warranties, Buyer shall have the right, in addition to exercising all other rights Buyer may have under the Contract, Uniform Commercial Code and any other applicable statutes or law, to take the following actions, at Buyer's option: (i) retain the defective goods in whole or in part with an appropriate adjustment in the price for the goods; (ii) require Seller to repair or replace the defective goods in whole or in part at Seller's sole expense, including all shipping, transportation, and installation costs; (iii) correct or replace the defective goods with similar items and recover the total cost relating thereto from Seller, including the cost of product recalls; or (iv) reject the defective goods.
- f. These warranties shall survive inspection, test, delivery, acceptance, use and payment by Buyer and shall inure to the benefit of Buyer, its successors, assigns, customers, and the users of Buyer's goods and services. These warranties may not be limited or disclaimed. Payment for goods or services by Buyer will not constitute acceptance of the goods/services or a waiver of any warranty claim.

11. INGREDIENTS DISCLOSURE; SPECIAL WARNINGS AND INSTRUCTIONS:

If requested by Buyer, Seller shall promptly furnish to Buyer in such form and detail as Buyer may direct: (a) a list of all ingredients, specifications, assembly and wiring diagrams and component part descriptions related to the goods provided by Seller to Buyer; (b) the quantities of each of the foregoing; and (c) information concerning any changes in or additions to any of the foregoing. Prior to and with the shipment of the goods, Seller agrees to furnish to Buyer sufficient warning and notice in writing (including appropriate labels on the goods, containers and packing) of any hazardous material that is an ingredient or a part of any of the goods, together with such special handling instructions as may be necessary to advise carriers, Buyer, and their respective employees of how to exercise that measure of care and precaution that will best prevent bodily injury or property damage in the handling, transportation, processing, use or disposal of the goods, containers and packing shipped to Buyer. Seller shall also comply with all applicable laws regarding any warning labels or other alerts which must be given to either Buyer or any end user of the goods supplied by Seller to Buyer.

12. INSOLVENCY:

Buyer may immediately terminate its Purchase Orders and other agreements with Seller without liability to Buyer in any of the following or any other comparable events: (a) insolvency of Seller; (b) filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy by Seller; (c) filing of any involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Seller; (d) appointment of a receiver or trustee over Seller or the assets of Seller; or (e) execution of an assignment for the benefit of creditors by Seller, provided that such petition, appointment or assignment is not vacated or nullified within 15 days of such event. Seller shall reimburse Buyer for all costs incurred by Buyer in connection with any of the foregoing, including, but not limited to, all attorneys' and other professional fees, expert witness fees and costs.

13. TERMINATION FOR BREACH OR NONPERFORMANCE; SALE OF ASSETS OR CHANGE IN CONTROL:

- a. Buyer reserves the right to terminate all or any part of its agreements with Seller, including under any Purchase Orders, without liability to Buyer, if Seller: (i) repudiates, threatens to breach or breaches any of the terms of any Purchase Order or other agreement with Buyer, including Seller's warranties; (ii) fails to perform services or deliver goods as specified by Buyer; (iii) fails to make progress so as to endanger timely and proper completion of services or delivery of goods; and does not correct such failure or breach within 10 days (or such shorter period of time if required under the circumstances) after receipt of written notice from Buyer specifying such failure or breach; (iv) violates any applicable forced labor, human trafficking, anti-corruption, or international trade laws, including, but not limited to, those referenced in the provisions of these Terms governing Compliance With Laws and/or the Truck Hero, inc. Supplier Code of Conduct; or (v) if Seller fails to provide Buyer with adequate and reasonable assurance of Seller's ability to perform timely any of Seller's obligations under any Purchase Order, including, without limitation, delivery of goods; (vi) if Buyer terminates for breach any other Purchase Order issued by Buyer to Seller in accordance with the terms of such Purchase Order (whether or not such other Purchase Order is related to the Purchase Order); or (vii) if Seller fails to remain competitive with respect to price, quality, delivery, technology, payment terms, or customer support. In the event of a termination under this Subpart a, Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller, among other things, all costs incurred by Buyer in purchasing substitute goods or services from an alternative supplier. Additionally, in the event that an act of termination by Buyer under this Subpart a is determined to be improper for any reason, the damages available to Seller shall be limited to the damages that Seller would have been entitled to receive if Buyer had terminated for convenience pursuant to these Terms.
- b. Buyer may terminate its agreements and Purchase Orders with Seller upon giving at least 60 days' notice to Seller, without liability to Buyer, if Seller (i) sells, or offers to sell, a material portion of its assets, or (ii) sells or exchanges, or offers to sell or exchange, or causes to be sold or exchanged more than 20% of Seller's stock or other ownership interest (or another amount that effects a change in the control of Seller). Seller shall notify

In the event that an act of termination by Buyer under this Subpart b is determined to be improper for any reason, the damages available to Seller shall be limited to the damages that Seller would have been entitled to receive if Buyer had terminated for convenience pursuant to these Terms.

14. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE:

In addition to any other rights of Buyer to terminate hereunder or under any Purchase Orders, Buyer may, at its option, immediately terminate all or any part of its agreements with Seller, including under any Purchase Orders, at any time and for any reason, by giving notice to Seller. Upon such termination, Buyer shall pay to Seller only the following amounts, when due, as Seller's sole remedy: (a) the contract price for all conforming goods and services that have been delivered in accordance with the Purchase Orders and these Terms; and (b) the actual costs of work-in-process and raw materials incurred by Seller in furnishing the goods or services under the terminated Purchase Orders or other agreements, to the extent such costs are reasonable in amount and are properly allocable or apportionable under generally accepted accounting principles to the terminated portion of the agreements and Purchase Orders; less, however: (a) the sum of the reasonable value or cost (whichever is higher) of any goods or materials used or sold by Seller with Buyer's written consent; (b) the cost of any damaged or destroyed goods or material; and (c) any other offsets Buyer may have against Seller. - c. Seller will defend, hold harmless and indemnify Buyer, its successors and customers against any claims of infringement (including patent, trademark, copyright, industrial design right, or other proprietary right, or misuse or misappropriation of trade secret) and resulting damages and expenses (including attorney's and other professional fees) arising in any way in relation to the goods or services provided by Seller to Buyer, including such claims where Seller has provided only part of the goods or services; and Seller expressly waives any claim against Buyer that such infringement arose out of compliance with Buyer's specifications.

- d. Seller is solely and exclusively responsible for any costs, losses, fines, or penalties (including attorney's fees) resulting from the seizure, re-export, or destruction of counterfeit (or allegedly counterfeit goods) by U.S. Customs & Border Protection ("CBP") or other customers authorities.

16. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NONDISCLOSURE:

- a. The protections provided for in this Paragraph shall be treated as supplementing the terms of any separate confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement between Buyer and Seller. - b. As used in these Terms, "Confidential Information" shall mean any and all technical and business information provided by Buyer (or its affiliates) to Seller, including but not limited to (i) patent and patent applications, (ii) trade secrets, and (iii) proprietary information of Buyer or its business partners — ideas, techniques, sketches, drawings, works of authorship, models, inventions, know-how processes, apparatuses, equipment, algorithms, software programs, software source documents, and formulas related to the current, future, and proposed products and services, and including without limitation, their respective information concerning research, experimental work, development, design details and specifications, engineering, financial information, procurement requirements, purchasing, manufacturing, customer lists, investors, employees, business and contractual relationships, business forecasts, sales and merchandising, marketing plans, and information Buyer provides regarding third parties.

- d. Seller shall immediately notify Buyer in writing upon discovery of any loss or unauthorized disclosure of the Confidential Information.
- e. Upon written request of Buyer, Seller shall promptly return all documents and other tangible materials representing Buyer's Confidential Information and all copies thereof.
- f.
